Executive Board Election Information:

1. Vice President of Membership
  - a. Maintain membership (i.e. update listserv, seek out new members)
  - b. Take attendance at club meetings
  - c. Represent IPHC at student organization fairs
2. Treasurer
  - a. Monitor club financial standing
  - b. Create budget for IPHC academic year
  - c. Spearhead fundraising operations

All are welcome to apply regardless of previous involvement in IPHC, but candidates with previous membership history will be given priority.

If you are looking for a more low-key leadership position within IPHC, please consider being a representative for your program! Each program (i.e. Nursing, PA, PT, Vet Med) is allowed TWO representatives who can vote on matters of policy for IPHC. This is a GREAT position for any first year students! Duties of a representative include the following:

1. Program Representative
  - a. Keep the executive board up to date on exam schedules for your program
  - b. Pass along information about IPHC events to your program
  - c. Attend at least 1 IPHC board meeting per semester

To apply for a board position or program representative spot, please send an email of interest for your desired position that includes your name and program to iphc@rso.wisc.edu by Friday September 27th at NOON.
