

Office of Student Financial Aid
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Money Wise Wednesday

Gain valuable strategies to increase your comfort level with managing your monies and make wise, informed decisions about your financial future in this FREE, friendly financial education series.

FALL 2020

SEPT.
9

Borrow Smart

Uninformed credit decisions can have long-lasting effects. This session covers types of credits, which types of credit to avoid, and how to resolve serious debt problems.

OCT.
7

Monitor and Protect

Awareness is key to protection. This session covers fraud, scams, and identity theft, and how to respond.

NOV.
11

Plan and Spend

Good money management habits can have a lifetime of value. This session covers budgeting strategies, cash flow statements, and methods of tracking your money.

TIME

4:00 p.m. -
6:00 p.m.

WHERE

Fall: Access LIVE Sessions
at go.wisc.edu/itrxe

Spring: Check reg. site or today.wisc.edu

SPRING 2021

FEB.
3

Save and Build

Saving for an emergency, a vacation trip, a home, and retirement starts here. This session covers different types of bank accounts and various investment vehicles and their importance.

MAR.
3

Work and Earn

Getting prepared for the working world is easier with resources and support. This session covers job related topics like salary negotiation, payroll taxes and deductions.

Register at:
go.wisc.edu/3018sj

Registration is not required but encouraged.
Don't miss a session! Register to receive email reminders.

Special financial wellness sessions will be offered throughout April 2021.
Details available starting in spring 2021.

Have questions? Contact pahoua.xiong@wisc.edu
Student Financial Education Program provided by Trellis Company