

School of Nursing Undergraduate Student Ambassador Program

The School of Nursing is recruiting professional and passionate nursing students to serve as Nursing Student Ambassadors! Ambassadors represent the School of Nursing to prospective undergraduate students and their families, School of Nursing alumni, donors, and friends of the School. Ambassadors support Academic Affairs, Institutional Affairs, and Office of the Dean in a variety of communication, outreach, and administrative functions.

Duties as directed:

- Lead individual or group tours of Signe Skott Cooper Hall or meet virtually through video conferencing for prospective students (typically high school juniors and seniors), School of Nursing alumni, donors, and friends of the School.
- Represent the School of Nursing at on-campus (or virtual) recruiting fairs, outreach programs, and School-wide events (i.e., Littlefield Lecture, Science Expedition, Pre-nursing Open House, etc.).
- Serve as peer advisors to pre-nursing and first-year students; directed by Academic Affairs advising team.
- Support and co-present admission information sessions for prospective high school and pre-nursing students.
- Professionally communicate with prospective undergraduate students, alumni, and friends of the School of Nursing through phone, email, video conference, and social media to maintain and enhance interest and engagement in the School of Nursing.

Qualifications & Core Competencies:

- Applicants must be a first or second-year traditional BSN nursing students as of July 1, 2022.
- Able to work 1-3 hours per week while classes are in session; potential for work over spring and summer break. Exact hours are to be determined, but availability on weekday afternoons, especially Friday afternoons may impact eligibility for position.
- Able to work independently, and as a member of an effective team.
- Able to provide consistent and individualized customer service.
- Exceptional attention to detail and ability to contribute to discussion on how to improve School of Nursing engagement on campus and beyond.
- Strong communication skills to present information, answer questions, and listen to prospective student concerns.
- Able to create a welcoming and inclusive experience for prospective students and visitors from a diverse spectrum of cultural, economic, ethnic, and regional backgrounds.
- Knowledge and understanding of the School of Nursing undergraduate program (or strong interest in learning about it).
- Passion for the School of Nursing and UW-Madison.

Hours and Areas of Responsibility:

- Position is for 1-3 hours/week @ $12.00 per hour (varies per week).
- Responsibilities may be in general assistance to Academic Programs/Student Services or focused projects within Academic Programs/Student Services, Communications and/or Development.

Application Materials: Submit the following in a single PDF document at:

- One-page resume.
- Cover letter, which highlights why you are interested in the position and why you would be a good fit for the role.

Apply Now: Student Ambassador Position

Deadline: Applications due by 11:59 PM on June 5, 2022